

Plant a Seed & See What Grows – The Art of Storytelling Webinar

Recognized by his peers as a master of his craft, Anthony Audain is a skilled storyteller and a dynamic teacher and performer of African Canadian descent. He has a Degree in English and an Honours Diploma in Theatre-Acting from Ryerson University's School of Performing Arts. He is a writer of plays, storytelling narratives, digital scripts, and scripts for short documentary films. He has conducted workshops on Diversity, Confidence Building, Personal Story Presentation, and Fine-Tuning Interview & Communication Skills. Anthony has worked as an Arts Facilitator with School Divisions in both Winnipeg and Toronto. Mr. Audain is a proud member of The Alliance of Canadian Cinema, Television and Radio Artists, Canadian Actors' Equity Association, and The Storytellers of Canada - Conteurs du Canada.