"In The Tradition..."

The 36th Annual National Black Storytelling Festival & Conference
Raleigh / Durham Triangle
Week of October 29, 2018

Adopt-A-Teller Program

During our festival and conference, nationally and regionally renowned storytellers serve our communities at reduced rates.

We take our stories everywhere: schools, universities, museums, libraries, child care centers, assisted living residencies, community groups and more! We are ready to come to your venue for interactive performances, dynamic workshops and instructive artist-in-residence programs.

This year, thanks to our grantors, we have a limited number of criteria-based free programming.
($75 application fee per program)
